

RAILWAY MEN MAKE GOOD USE OF GUNSTRAIN ROBBERS DIE WITH THEIR BOOTS ON.

Attempt to Hold Up the Queen & Crescent Express Results Disastrously to the Robbers—Affray Takes Place Near Greenwood, Ky.—Shot in a Court Room at Helena.

Greenwood, Ky., March 28.—One of the most unsuccessful attempts at train robbery occurred at 2:30 a. m. yesterday in the southern portion of Kentucky, near Greenwood, when six men undertook to rob the southbound train, No. 3, Queen and Crescent, which left Cincinnati at 8 o'clock p. m. last night.

One of the six was killed outright, another died at 4 o'clock in the morning, a third giving the name of Miller, now lies here severely wounded, and the other three have not been heard from. The train was delayed not more than ten minutes and reached Chattanooga at 8 o'clock a. m. on time.

The reason for this summary disposal of a body of train robbers is found in the fact that some tidings of their purpose had been given to the express authorities, and Mr. T. R. Griffin, who serves as a superintendent of police on the Southern road, had with him two trusty assistants.

The train had just reached the south end of tunnel No. 9, which is a mile north of Greenwood, when the robbers signaled it to stop. They had scarcely disclosed their purpose when Mr. Griffin and his assistants on the train began offensive operations and in ten minutes three of the robbers had bitten the dust, the other three had flown and the train was speeding on its way. Not a single injury was suffered by any one on the train. The treasure in care of the Adams Express company's messenger was entirely safe.

SHOT IN A COURT ROOM.

Eugene Stanley Kills a Woman at Helena on Trial for Robbing Him.

Helena, Mont., March 28.—The Helena temple of justice was turned into a house of blood yesterday when, without warning, Eugene Stanley shot and fatally wounded Ida Wood during the progress of a trial. She was accused of having robbed him of $140. Two bullets struck her and the doctors say the wound must prove fatal. There was a stampede when the first shot was fired. Luckily no one was hurt in the wild rush for the door. Ida Wood is little known here. Stanley formerly kept a saloon in Ferguson county and is well known in the northeastern section of Montana. He is said to have made threats against the woman since the night she is said to have robbed him. He refused to make any statement and does not pretend to be crazy.

Parade of Veterans at Muncie.

Muncie, Ind., March 28.—Muncie was given over to the Grand Army yesterday. There were fully 10,000 visitors in the city, and the sixteenth annual encampment, Department of Indiana, G. A. R., is one of the most largely attended and successful events of the kind ever held in the state. The event of the encampment was the great parade in the afternoon, with about 5,000 people in line. A feature was presented at the court house square, where were massed 2,500 pupils from the public schools, each carrying a small flag. As the procession passed around the square the veterans were greeted with the waving of flags and cheers.

Woman Tortured by Burglars.

Springfield, Ill., March 28.—Burglars visited the house of Mrs. Mary Berger, aged 68 years, and demanded $2,000 which they declared she had secreted in the house. They gagged her, held revolvers in her face, and finally placed her on the floor, covered her with straw, and then set it on fire. As she still insisted she had no money they put out the fire before she was seriously burned. Then they chloroformed her and made a search of the house. They secured only $11. Mrs. Berger, though greatly shocked, escaped serious injury.

Money Safe at Mount Morris.

Oregon, Ill., March 28.—An expert safe man arrived at Mount Morris yesterday and opened the inner steel door to the safe of the Mount Morris bank. The contents, about $8,000, were found untouched. The robbers had obtained entrance through the rear door of the bank and all of the work indicated it was done by experienced hands. The outer door of the safe had been blown off and the contents of the lower part of the safe, excepting about $500 in postage stamps and some bags of pennies, taken.

Michigan G. A. R.

Mount Clemens, Mich., March 28.—Detroit was downed in the G. A. R. state encampment yesterday. Alex Patrick being defeated by Judge Dabolt of St. Johns by a good majority for department commander. National Guard Needs Money.

Kansas City, Mo., March 28.—The Third Regiment of the State National Guard at its meeting here last night adopted resolutions declaring that if the local business men did not subscribe sufficient funds by May 1 for its maintenance it would disband. ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE.

Senator Aspinwall's Racing Bill Goes Over.

Springfield, Ill., March 28.—In the senate yesterday Mr. Aspinwall's bill allowing thirty days' racing in one inclosure from May 1 to Nov. 1, and prohibiting foreign pool selling, came up as a special order on its passage. Mr. Aspinwall moved that a consideration of the measure be postponed for three weeks, and this was done. The joint resolution providing that when the two houses adjourn next Friday they stand adjourned until the following Wednesday at 10 o'clock was adopted.

Chairman Litterer of the revenue committee reported with an adverse recommendation the Craig bill abolishing the state board of equalization. Mr. Craig moved to nonconcur in the committee's report and consideration of the motion was made a special order for next Wednesday. Senator Coon's bill on tax legacies, gifts and inheritances was amended so that the tax shall not apply to legacies of less than $20,000. After an exhaustive discussion the bill was advanced to third reading by a vote of 37 yeas to 15 nays. Senator Evans offered a joint resolution providing for sine die adjournment of the general assembly on Friday, May 2.

A motion made by Senator Litterer to refer it to the committee on judiciary was defeated. The resolution was then adopted by a vote of 29 yeas to 12 nays.

The senate then adjourned. By far the liveliest sensation in the house this session was that created by Representative Jones of Cook county. He arose to a question of privilege and arraigned State Senator Gore in the most scathing terms for his alleged interference with the law-making branch of the state government, in connection with the bill to take the management of building and loan associations and banks from the auditor's office and establish separate departments for them.

Mr. Mauritzson's bill to increase the salary of the clerk of the election commissioners to $5,000 a year came up on second reading and the enacting clause was stricken out by an overwhelming majority. The house then adjourned.

WILL SWELL TREASURY CASH.

Central Pacific Sinking Fund May Be Taken by the Government.

Washington, March 28.—The attorney-general, in an opinion sent to the secretary of the treasury, holds in effect that the sinking fund credited to the Central Pacific railroad company and now in the treasury, amounting to nearly $6,000,000, may be used to reimburse the government for $2,382,000 paid Jan. 16 last in the redemption of its bonds lent the company in 1865, and that the sinking fund may also be applied to the payment of the balance of the interest due on these bonds, amounting to $3,339,122. In this sinking fund are bonds amounting to $5,561,000, which, when sold, will increase the available cash in the treasury by that amount plus a considerable premium which will undoubtedly be realized.

Carrollton, Mo., March 28.—Ten-year-old Nellie Meeks, the only survivor of the Meeks family of five, who were murdered May 10, last year, is in town to testify in the trial of William P. and George Taylor, which began yesterday. She is positive in her identification of the Taylors, who, she says, called for her father, his wife and three children, who were bundled into a wagon and started for Taylor's farm. George Taylor shot and killed Meeks and his wife and then beat the 5 and 2-year-old children on the head with rocks and kicked them to death. Nellie was left for dead.

San Francisco, Cal., March 28.—The steamship Australia arrived yesterday from Honolulu. CHANG IS BETTER
DISPATCHES SAYHIS CONDITION TODAY IS MUCH IMPROVED.

So Says a Special From Hiroshima—Regarding His Assault on the Mikado of Japan Says the Severe Form of Punishment Must Be Inflicted—Interesting Foreign Items.

New York, March 28.—A special from Hiroshima says that Li Hung Chang's condition is much improved today. The punishment to be meted out to the man who shot him is told in the following special from Shanghai:

"The following is a translation of an imperial rescript published in a special issue of the Japanese official Gazette, in connection with the attempt on the life of Li Hung Chang: 'China is now in a state of war with our country, but she has, with a due observance of the forms of international etiquette, sent an ambassador for the conclusion of peace. We, on our part, named our plenipotentiaries, who were instructed to meet him and negotiate at Shimonoseki. Thus it was incumbent upon us, in pursuance with international usage, to afford the ambassador treatment consistent with the national honor and to accord him a suitable escort for his protection. We consequently gave orders to all functionaries to use the utmost diligence, and it is therefore with profound grief that we now have to express our regret that a ruffian should have dared to inflict personal injury upon the Chinese ambassador. The culprit must receive the severest punishment provided by law. Other official subjects must respect our wishes to preserve the glory of our country untarnished and must provide against the recurrence of such violence.'

The rescript is signed by the emperor and countersigned by his ministers.

REBELS TAKE TWO PLACES.

Spanish Troops Defeated at Bayamo and Manzanillo, Cuba.

New York, March 28.—A special dispatch from Tampa says:

"Havan passengers by the Olivette bring the rumor that the insurgents have taken possession of Bayamo and Manzanillo, repulsing Col. Sautied's troops at Manzanillo with heavy loss. The rumor was current at the Louvre, but newspapers simply announced the fact that Sautied had met the insurgents at Manzanillo. As the Louvre is the resort of many Spanish officers, from whom the rumor gained circulation in Havana, it is generally credited. No news of the battle can be gained through newspapers.

"Conscription of Cubans for military duty is being advocated by the Spanish officers in Havana and it is believed that such a move will soon be made. About twenty-five young men have arrived here from Havana, anticipating such a movement. Their parents are anxious to have them escape such unwelcome service. Some of the boys say they hope to make their way into the Cuban lines from this country, but they have no desire to bear arms for Spain. About twenty schooners are fitting out here, ostensibly for the sponge banks, but it is not believed that this is the destination of all of them."

Berlin, March 28.—The reichstag yesterday elected Baron von Buel-Berenberg, first vice-president of the reichstag and recently acting president, to be president of that body in succession to Herr von Letzow, who resigned Saturday as a result of a refusal of the reichstag to permit him to congratulate Prince Bismarck in the name of the house on his birthday. The vote stood 291 for and 183 against the election. The black ballots cast numbered 105. The new president of the reichstag in accepting the presidency took occasion to praise the services of his predecessors in office.

The committee which has the anti-revolution bill under examination began its consideration of its second reading and rejected the proposal of Herr Lensmann to throw out the measure.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 28.—Thousands of people have viewed the devastation wrought by Tuesday night's fire. When the flames were quenched and the smoke of the smoldering ruins had blown away it was found that one of the largest business blocks in the city was a total loss, seven other buildings were badly damaged, and the stocks of twenty-three business concerns entirely burned or so badly damaged that they are practically worthless. The total loss is estimated by the insurance companies at $1,462,500. Such is the record of the destructive fire as far as is known.

Omaha, Neb., March 28.—St. Paul's Polish Catholic church at the Omaha suburb of Sheeley, the scene of the terrible battle two weeks ago between rival factions, in which the presiding priest shot several persons, burned last night. Both factions accuse the other of setting the church on fire. The affairs of St. Paul's church have been an issue in Omaha Catholic circles for years. Each side has many enthusiastic supporters. Sheeley, the suburb where the church is located, has about 200 Catholic communicants. They are about equally divided in the case.

Marquette, Wis., March 28.—A fire in the woods threatened the northeastern portion of the city limits yesterday afternoon. The fire department was unable to reach it with hose, and a big crew of men have been fighting it. It continued spreading and a force was kept busy all night to prevent it from destroying several houses. There is a high wind blowing and all indications are that the fire will reach the houses, as nothing but sand and a little water can be secured to quell the flames.

Joaquin Miller Talks on Hawaii.

San Francisco, Cal., March 28.—Joaquin Miller arrived yesterday from Hawaii. The poet left Honolulu suddenly with no baggage. He was followed by the grand duke of Baden, Prince Hohenzollern, the chancellor; Prince Alexander von Hohenzollern, youngest son of the chancellor; the Baden ministry; and Count von Wilmowski, chief of the imperial chancellery. The visitors were received by Count von Rantzau, the son-in-law of Prince Bismarck, who escorted them to the castle, where Prince Bismarck met them on the threshold and greeted them warmly. At the luncheon which followed Prince Henry of Prussia proposed the health of Prince Bismarck, adding: "May God still long preserve you."

Prince Henry and Prince Waldemar left Friedrichsruhe at 12:15 p. m. Before the arrival of his guests Prince Bismarck, with his household, attended the "trooping of the colors" of the Halberstadt Cuirassiers and bade most cordial farewell to the officers. Prince Bismarck does not seem to be any the worse for the fatigues which he has endured the last three days.

BANK'S DOORS CLOSE.

Commercial of Cincinnati Unable to Stand the Run.

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 28.—The Commercial bank, a state institution, long regarded as financially solid, made an assignment yesterday to W. H. Campbell, the cashier. The cause of the suspension was inability to meet the calls made upon it by the clearing-house. The bank had been in somewhat straitened circumstances for some time, but the determination to suspend was not reached until yesterday, and only after the clearing-house situation had been fully considered at a hurriedly-called meeting of the directors. The bank was the depository for a number of building associations, also for the Probate court, which had a balance of between $3,000 and $4,000 to its credit. It is reported the affairs of the bank will develop badly. The bank has a paid-up capital stock of $28,000 and a surplus of $40,000. Its average deposits were $400,000. It has $900,000 bills receivable, but it is claimed the trouble was precipitated by the bank being compelled to make $50,000 of bad paper good on Tuesday.

Sir Charles Seems to Be Out of It.

Ottawa, Ont., March 28.—The whole talk here is the resignation of Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, minister of justice. The difficulty is not altogether in connection with the Manitoba school case, although it started with that matter. Another rumor has it that Tupper's resignation is due to a question of the leadership of the House of Commons next session. Premier Bowell being in the senate, one of the other ministers must lead in the commons, and undoubtedly it must be either Finance Minister Foster or Sir Charles Tupper. The leadership of the commons will be significant as it would designate the next conservative premier. Those best posted predict trouble for the Bowell cabinet.

Davis Will Case Settled.

Butte, Mont., March 28.—The famous Davis will contest has been settled and a compromise for the division of the vast estate among the many contestants reached. An agreement to that effect was made yesterday after months of negotiations, and the contents were withdrawn and the old will, which had been alleged by the contestants to have been a coarse and stupid forgery, was admitted to probate as the genuine last will and testament of Judge Andrew J. Davis, deceased. The settlement is subject to revision in one year if new heirs are found.

Charge Willful Trespass.

Washington, March 28.—The general land office has received a report charging willful trespass on timber lands in Wisconsin by Theodore D. Gay, and Secretary Smith has asked the attorney-general to institute prosecution as well as a civil suit to recover the value of logs illegally taken. Gay was under contract to deliver the logs to Archibald McKennon, owner of a mill, who, the commissioner says, knew the cutting was being done on government lands held for cancellation.

End Life Together.

New York, March 28.—A murder and suicide occurred yesterday in the Falk building, No. 13 West Twenty-fourth street. The victims of the tragedy are Amy Thill, aged 24, a pretty actress, and Jack Bigelow, an actor, aged 29. The causes that led to the deed may never be known, for nothing was left as a clue. Judging from circumstances Bigelow first killed the young woman by firing three shots into her head, and then put a bullet into his own brain.

THE 500 LINE RATES
ARE CUT BY A BILL

ASSEMBLY REDUCED PASSENGER FARE TO 3 CENTS.

Street Car Companies Must Pay to the City a License of From 1 to 2 Per Cent. of the Gross Earnings—Religious Choice for Dependent Children—Many Bills Killed.

Madison, March 28.—The assembly bills passed this morning were: reducing the passenger fare on the 500 line to three cents a mile; compelling street car companies to pay to the city a license fee of from one to two per cent. on all gross receipts; prohibiting state officers from receiving mileage when traveling on passes.

The bill repealing the law allowing religious preference to control in selecting institutions in which to commit dependent children, was passed, after a fight. Many bills were passed on by the assembly, and forty bills were killed.

The senate had a debate on the bill providing for the taxation of mortgages and the bill was finally referred back to the judiciary committee. The debate on Senator Bashford bill regulating railroad rates which were put on the calendar for an indefinite postponement was finally made a special order for tomorrow. The bill providing for instruction of mutes in the public schools was killed.

The assembly meets tonight when the bill legislating Jere Dobbs out of office will be a special order.

TO CLEAR THE RESERVATION.

Government to Evict 275 Settlers on the Winnebago Land.

Omaha, Neb., March 28.—An order was received yesterday from Judge Sanborn authorizing United States Marshal White to go to the Winnebago reservation and serve notices of eviction on 275 settlers who occupy leased lands on the reservation. It is claimed the leases were never approved by the secretary of the interior, and, as a consequence, the government refused to recognize the right of the white settlers to move to the reservation. Many of the settlers are said to be determined to fight to a finish, and it may be necessary to have a detachment of troops sent to the reservation to enforce the order. A train load of deputies will go there to-day, and if trouble results troops will follow.

Michigan Senators Have a Row.

Lansing, Mich., March 28.—Yesterday after a stormy scene in the senate between Messrs. Clapp and McLaughlin the bill changing the age of consent from 14 to 17 years was passed by a vote of 17 to 10. The joint legislative committees on public health made a favorable report on the Miller bill abolishing the state board of health and substituting therefor a board organized on radically different lines, to be appointed by the governor. The house spent the entire afternoon in committee of the whole on the Stoll bill repealing the law taxing mortgages. A motion to strike out all after the enacting clause was lost by a tie vote. The bill will come up again and it is believed will be passed.

Both men are supposed to be book-makers.

Train Held Up in Missouri.

Little Rock, Ark., March 28.—Train No. 64 on the Iron Mountain road was held up by two robbers about 10 o'clock last night a short distance north of Willemsville, Mo. The robbers cut off the mail, express and baggage cars, ran them up the track half a mile, and looted the express car. It is not known what booty the robbers got. The conductor lost his watch and money, and it is supposed the passengers were also robbed. The details of the hold-up have not yet been received.

Report Against Woman Suffrage.

Salt Lake, Utah, March 28.—A minority report against woman suffrage has been presented to the Utah Constitutional convention. The minority fears the privilege would create a temptation for those who ruled before to resume sway by working on the generous impulses and religious instincts of women, which would result in political, if not social and business, ostracism of the minority.

Annexation Delegation Is Hooted.

St. Johns, N. F., March 28.—The delegation appointed to go to Ottawa to ascertain upon what terms Newfoundland can be admitted into the Dominion of Canada sailed yesterday. Five thousand men paraded the streets with a brass band and carrying banners inscribed, "No Confederation with Canada." As the steamer left the wharf the band played the dead march. The delegates were hissed and hooted. Public feeling is strong in favor of annexation to the United States.

Mary Delaney on Trial.

Washington, March 28.—Mary Delaney, the Milwaukee woman arrested for setting fire to St. Dominick's and St. Patrick's church, was on trial in police court yesterday. Judge Miller said it was evident that the woman was not responsible for her acts. The case was not concluded. Last night an attempt was made to burn St. Mary's Catholic school by pouring oil on one of the floors and applying the torch, just as the two churches were fired.

WHY NERO FIDDLER
IS NOW EXPLAINED

ROME WAS SO CHILLY THAT A FIRE MADE HIM GLAD.

At Least that is the Theory That One
Would Gather From J. C. Wil-marth's Letter Written to Janesville Relatives—Uncertain Transportation on Mount Vesuvius.

The following characteristic letter has been written to a Janesville relative by James C. Wilmarth, editor of The Gazette, who is now traveling in Europe. It is dated Rome, March 11
and says:

"I am writing this letter on a table
in a very rocky Italian restaurant where I have just eaten dinner. I use the restaurant for a waiting room, I may explain, because my bedroom is being used to store cold air in, in preparation for a long, hot summer.
When the weather is at all wintry
here, Americans get much the worst of it. There has not been a fire here since Mr. Nero lived here. I have changed my mind about Nero since I came here. I would fiddle myself if I could see a fire tonight.

I have seen more things since I left Gibraltar than you can throw stones
at. We had a week in Spain—immensely interesting too. Saw Gibralter, Algeiras, Ronda, Bobadilla and Granada, went in raptures over the Alhambra as all dutiful tourists are expected to, and got back in time for the next German Lloyd boat. Spain is a wonderful country, about fifty years behind the times. Everything is slow and most everything is old. Going to Granada the train was stopped by some mud that had washed down on the track and covered about forty feet of the rails. In America a gang of section men would have had trains running in two hours. Here they have been at it six weeks and passengers are likely to walk around the same mud heap for another six weeks before a path is cleared.

ests and Soldiers Plenty.

Priests and soldiers are the most numerous class in all the countries I have struck so far—excepting, of course, beggars. Sunday afternoon I counted thirty-eight priests in one block in Naples. Twelve sisters of mercy and twenty or thirty children in the uniform of a Catholic school were scattered along the sidewalk in the same block. It wasn't a procession—they were out for a Sunday afternoon stroll in groups of three or four and happened to bunch right there. As for soldiers, two travel in every train in southern Spain and stand around to inspect the passengers who get on and off, while in Spain or Italy, you can't throw a stone in the street but some man in a rusty uniform is hit. Gibraltar, of course, is the worst of all, for civilians are the exception rather than the rule
there.

If I should start right home today I would feel as if my trip had more than paid for itself. There has not been a thing to mar it, and interesting things have bobbed up in every corner aside from and in addition to the "stock sights." In Naples a stranger can stand on the street corner and keep on a continual broad grin at the funny bits of life he sees. And the people that live in these parts have their fun, too. If any of them saw me riding up Mount Vesuvius on a horse back, they must be laughing yet.
After the experience I had on that climb I have lost all respect for horses that can't gallop up three flights of stairs and then shin down the lightning rod. It's been thirteen years since I rode a horse but the way I hung on would make a circus rider green with envy. The road up the mountain is a sort of goat track in and out, up and down,
over big clatter heaps, gullies
full of broken stone, and great stretches of shattered lava. It looked to me as if a horse would do well to walk and keep his footing but the graduate of the Central Italy Insane Asylum who was my guide kept galloping his ringboned steed up behind mine and pounding my horse with a stirrup leather. Every time this happened it seemed as if there had been an eruption and earth quake combined. That horse would stick both hind legs straight up in the air, then light and start off on a dead run over the cliffs, chasms and scrap heaps ahead.

Ride Not All Joy.

I got up in safety and what surprised me a great deal more I got back all right too. I fully expected, when the horse started to gallop back from the top that I should be kicked off and roll, bounce and slide on my head to the little village on the plain below.
When I got up the next morning and

If anybody asks you, you can tell them that Naples is all that it has been painted—only the beauty seems to me, to lie in the bay and the mountains lining it, rather than in the town. As for Rome, I haven't been here long enough yet to tell much about it. I came up on the night train, leaving Naples at 10:45 last night, (23:45 they call it) and getting here at 6:30 this morning, after picking out a room that costs me thirty cents a night and located on the second floor of a fairly well preserved ruin in the tourists center (front parlor at that) I went over to St. Peter's and spent the day there and in the Vatican gallery. Michael Angelo's frescoes in the Sistine chapel, Raphael's frescoes, the Transfiguration by Raphael and Madonnas and saints by the dozen make a sort of crazy quilt for me every time I shut
my eyes.

Before I go to bed tonight I think I shall put in an hour or so at the opera. Tickets cost thirty cents each, and that is higher than usual, too. In Naples I paid fifteen cents for a seat in the parquette—couldn't possibly have paid more unless I bought two seats or squandered my money on a private box. I visited a Spanish newspaper office in Granada the other day
and got a number of points.

FORECAST OF APRIL WEATHER.

What We May Expect the Coming Month
From Past Experiences.

The data compiled from the weather bureau records for a period of twenty-degrees. The highest temperature

GUTTER FULL OF FOUL WATER.

First Ward Resident Complains About An Alleged Nuisance.

EDITOR GAZETTE—One of the greatest nuisances in this city is in the First ward. The small culvert which is supposed to drain the water from High and Academy streets has been frozen up for the last three or four weeks and the rich brown colored water has stood there all that time.
Another attraction is the ruins of the Rock County Tobacco Growers' warehouse, which covers the sidewalk and fills up the gutter which is partly responsible for the perfumed water. It should be attended to before sickness sets in. **

It is truly shocking to think of any concern in making a cost sale to say they are selling their $7 line for $3.50.
It leads us to believe that if they had any business to speak of they could easily retire after a year or two of active service. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

BIG SHOW'S BEASTS
FILLED MANY CARS

RINGLING'S MENAGERIE TRAIN
WENT THROUGH YESTERDAY.

Was Composed of a Score of Cars Filled With All Kinds of Animals and Four Hundred Horses In Charge of Burr Robbins Old Trainer, "Delavan" Alexander.

The menagerie of Ringling Brothers'
show was shipped to Chicago yesterday, and passed through Janesville en route. The train consisted of twenty-two cars. When it arrived at Chicago the animals demonstrated that they were useful as well as ornamental, for two elephants picked up a band wagon and put it where their master told them to. A giraffe, which never said a word, ran its head out of the top of a cage and surveyed 4,000 flags
on the ceiling of Ringling Brothers'
new home and circus. Chicago papers say the menagerie of the circus had arrived in first class condition after a swift journey from Baraboo.

There will be over 100 distinct species of animals, all of which are in excellent condition. The elephants present a grotesque appearance in the building. Among the rare animals are the giraffe, the only one at present in this country; a gnu, a full blooded zebra, a hippopotamus that weighs eight tons, and the celebrated baboon, Gihouile.

The circus is well equipped with 400 superb horses and ponies, under the supervision of "Delavan" Alexander, the former trainer of the Burr Robbins show, who is well known in Janesville, where his skill in handling sixteen horses hitched to one wagon was often displayed. The finest Percheron horse in this country, known as Prince Chaldean, pure white, as a special object of interest.
He is a magnificent fellow, having a mane 9 feet in length and a fore top 5 feet long. The hairless mare is a great curiosity. The exhibition will be on an immense scale, and full of attractive features.

The wagons, elegantly carved and painted, were constructed in Switzerland, all the work being done by hand
by the mountaineers. A night procession with calcium lights and multicolored fire exhibited en route, will be given Thursday.

Swept By a Cyclone.

Of approbation to the pinnacle of popularity,
Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has acquired a com-

it a bright and shining mark for knaves, who seek to foist upon the community spurious com-

ticle. These are mostly local bitters or tonics of great impurity, and of course, devoid of medicinal efficacy.
Beware of them and get the genuine kidney trouble, dyspepsia, nervousness, constipation and biliousness. Physicians of eminence

THE TIME HAS COME.

It Has Been Neglected Far Too Long.

The Spring Is The Time For You to Look Out For Yourself.

Symptoms at this Season You Must Heed to Keep Well.

Most serious are those diseases affecting the liver and kidneys. The very thought of them sends a thrill of horror through the body. When the kidneys cannot work death must result.

The symptoms pointing to weak or diseased kidneys, are, headache, pain or weakness in the back, bloating,
changes in the water, tired feeling,
loss of appetite, gas in the stomach,
indigestion, dyspepsia, dimness of vision, changes in the skin, sleeplessness and nervousness.

Here is a most remarkable cure of liver and kidney disease.

Mrs. C. R. Joyner, who resides at 10 Chapel St., Westfield, Mass., states:

"I was troubled with severe kidney trouble and indigestion, that gave me a nervous, trembling feeling, and I could not sleep very well. I used to wear plasters to relieve that miserable weakness in my kidneys. My liver was also in a bad condition.

"Early in the spring I was feeling
so miserable that I decided to try Dr.
Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Up to this time I have taken two bottles, and it has done all for me that I represent, and know one who sees and knows me, will doubt a word of what I say. I have lived in this town thirty years.

"Now my health and strength are restored, as I do not have one pain about me. I can eat anything I wish, and am not bothered with the gas in my stomach. I don't even wear a plaster now, and don't have that tired heavy feeling in going up stairs, and to express myself, can almost skip up and down, and am very thankful, for few can say it who have past their sixty years.

"I think that I came near Bright's disease.

"Some people will not take one thing long enough to give it a trial, and do not know whether it will help them or not.

"Now I feel first rate, and I give Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy all the praise, and I recommend the Nervura to all."

MRS. C. R. JOYNER.

This great world-renowned preparation, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, goes directly to the weakened or diseased organs and cures them. Its curative action on the liver and kidneys is quick and certain. It makes strong nerves, and pure, rich blood, which is just what you most need.

Now in the spring, is the very best time to take it because liver and kidney diseases as well as nearly all other affections, are more easily and quickly cured now than at any other season.
The liver and kidneys are always inactive in the spring, after the long,
cold winter, and to keep perfectly well everybody should take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy as a spring medicine.

It is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York city. He has the largest practice in the world, and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience. The great reputation of Dr. Greene is a guarantee that his medicine will cure, and the fact that he can be consulted by anyone, at any time, free of charge, personally or by letter gives absolute assurance of the beneficial action of this wonderful medicine.

HEAVY HOSE WAGON
RAN OVER HIS FOOT

FIREMAN FRED DIXON WAS PAINFULLY HURT.

Tried to Catch the Wagon On the Fly
and Had His Great Toe Crushed—Alarm Sent In For the Burning
Smoke House On F. E. Petrick's Premises.

The smoke house belonging to F.
E. Petrick, 160 North Main street, was destroyed by fire a few minutes after 4 o'clock this morning, entailing a loss of about five dollars with no insurance.

In responding to the alarm Fred Dixon of the east side hose company, met with quite a serious accident. He had swung open the station doors for the apparatus to pass out, and undertook to catch the driver's seat on the fly. His foot slipped and he was caught by the front wheel of the heavy hose wagon, the wheel passing over and crushing the great toe of the left foot. He climbed on the foot board, went to the fire and remained at his work until the company returned to the house, when the pain became so great that he removed his rubber boots and discovered that his great toe was crushed. Dr. Joe B.
Whiting dressed the wound but thinks it will lay Dixon up for some time.
Mr. Petrick was curing some hams and other meats belonging to Conrad Brothers, leaving the smoke-smudge going all right when he retired last night. The fire is supposed to be accidental. Night Officer P. McGinley discovered the blaze while making his last round for the night, and turned in an alarm from box 21, at corner of Fourth avenue and North Main street.
The fire was extinguished with chemicals. There was a quantity of meat in the smoke house which was damaged to some extent.

SUNDAY'S SERMON BY DR. TALMAGE

THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH IS DESCENDING.

"Have Ye Received the Holy Ghost?"— Acts xix:2—A Discourse Long to Be Remembered—Receiving the Light of Heaven.

THE WORD GHOST which means, a soul, or spirit, has been degraded in common parlance. We talk of ghosts as baleful and frightful, and in a frivolous or superstitious way. But my text speaks of a Ghost who is omnipotent, and Divine, and everywhere present; and ninety-one times in the New Testament called the Holy Ghost. The only time I ever heard this text preached from was in the opening days of my ministry, when a glorious old Scotch minister came up to help my village church. On the day of my ordination and installation, he said: "If you get into the corner of a Saturday night without enough sermons for Sunday, send for me, and I will come and preach for you." The fact ought to be known that the first three years of a pastor's life are appallingly arduous. No other profession makes the twentieth part of the demand on a young man. If a secular speaker prepares one or two speeches for a political campaign, it is considered arduous. If a lecturer prepares one lecture for a year, he is thought to have done well. But a young pastor has two sermons to deliver every Sabbath, before the same audience, besides all his other work; and the most of ministers never recover from the awful nervous strain of the first three years. Be sympathetic with all young ministers, and withhold your criticisms.

A Farewell Sermon.

My aged Scotch friend responded to my first call, and came and preached from the text I now announce. I remember nothing but the text. It was the last sermon he ever preached. On the following Saturday, he was called to his heavenly reward. But I remember just how he appeared, as leaning over the pulpit, he looked into the face of the audience, and with earnestness, and pathos, and electric force, asked them, in the words of my text, "Have ye received the Holy Ghost?" The office of this present discourse is to open a door, to unveil a Personage, to introduce a Force, not sufficiently recognized. He is as great as God. He is God. The second verse of the first chapter of the Bible introduces him. Genesis i: 2, "The Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters." That is, as an albatross or eagle spreads her wings over her young, and warms them into life, and teaches them to fly; so the Eternal Spirit spread his great, broad, radiant wings over this earth in its callow and unfledged state, and warmed it into life, and fluttered over it, and set it winging its way through immensity. It is the tip-top of all beautiful, and sublime suggestiveness. Can you not almost see the outspread wings over the nest of young worlds? "The Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters."

Another appearance of the Holy Ghost was at Jerusalem, during a great feast. Strangers speaking seventeen different languages were present from many parts of the world. But in one house they heard what seemed like the coming of a cyclone or hurricane. It made the trees bend, and the houses quake. The cry was, "What is that?" And then a forked flame of fire tipped each forehead; and what with the blast of wind and the dropping fire, a panic took place, until Peter explained it was neither cyclone nor conflagration, but the brilliance, and anointing, and baptismal power of the Holy Ghost. That scene was partially repeated in a forest when Rev. John Easton was preaching. There was the sound of a rushing, mighty wind, and the people looked to the sky to see if there were any signs of a storm, but it was a clear sky; yet the sound of the wind was so great that horses, frightened, broke loose from their fastenings, and the whole assembly felt that the sound was supernatural and Pentecostal. Oh, what an infinite, and almighty, and glorious Personage is the Holy Ghost. He brooded this planet into life, and now that through sin it has become a dead world, he will brood it the second time into life. Perilous attempt would be a comparison between the three Persons of the Godhead. They are equal, but there is some consideration which attaches itself to the Third Person of the Trinity, the Holy Ghost, that does not attach itself to either God the Father or God the Son. We may grieve God the Father and grieve God the Son, and be forgiven, but we are directly told that there is a sin against the Holy Ghost which shall never be forgiven, either in this world or the world to come. And it is wonderful that while on the streets you hear the name of God and Jesus Christ used in profanity, you never hear the words, Holy Ghost. This hour I speak of the Holy Ghost as Biblical interpreter, as a human reconstructor, as a solace for the broken-hearted, as a preacher's reinforcement.

Holy Ghost and the Bible.

The Bible is a mass of contradictions, an affirmation of impossibilities, unless the Holy Ghost helps us to understand it. The Bible says of itself, that the Scripture is not for "private interpretation," but "holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost;" that is, not private interpretation but Holy Ghost interpretation. Pile on your study table all the commentaries of the Bible—Matthew Henry, and Scott, and Adam Clarke, and Albert Barnes, and Bush, and Alexander; and all the archæologies, and all the Bible dictionaries, and all the maps of Palestine, and all the International Series of Sunday School Lessons; and if that is all, you will not understand the deeper and grander meanings of the Bible so well as that Christian mountaineer, who, Sunday morning, after having shaken down the fodder for the cattle, comes into his cabin, takes up his well-worn Bible, and with a prayer that stirs the heavens, asks for the Holy Ghost to unfold the Book. No more unreasonable would I be if I should take up the Novoe Vremya of St. Petersburg, all printed in Russian, and say, "There is no sense in this newspaper, for I cannot understand one line of all its columns, than for any man to take up the Bible, and, without getting Holy Ghost illumination as to its meaning, say, "This Book insults my common sense. I cannot understand it. Away with the incongruity!" No one but the Holy Ghost, who inspired the Scriptures, can explain the Scriptures. Fully realize that, and you will be as enthusiastic a lover of the old Book as my venerable friend who told me in Philadelphia last week that he was reading the Bible through the fifty-ninth time, and it became more attractive and thrilling every time he went through it. In the saddle-bags that hung across my horses back as I rode from Jerusalem down to the Dead sea, and up to Damascus, I had all the books about Palestine that I could carry; but many a man on his knees in the privacy of his own room, has had flashed upon him more vivid appreciation of the Word of God than many a man who has visited all the scenes of Christ's birth, and Paul's eloquence, and Peter's imprisonment, and Joshua's prowess, and Elijah's ascension. I do not depreciate any of the helps for Bible study, but I do say that they all together come infinitely short without a direct communication from the throne of God in response to prayerful solicitation. We may find many interesting things about the Bible without especial illumination, as how many horses Solomon had in his stables, or how long was Noah's ark, or who was the only woman whose full name is given in the Scriptures, or which is the middle verse of the Bible, and all that will do you no more good than to be able to tell how many bean poles there are in your neighbor's garden. The learned Earl of Chatham heard the famous Mr. Cecil preach about the Holy Ghost, and said to a friend on the way home from church, "I could not understand it; and do you suppose anybody understood it?" "Oh, yes," said his Christian friend, "there were uneducated women and some little children present who understood it." I warrant you that the English soldier had under supernal influence read the Book, for after the battle of Inkermann was over he was found dead with his hand glued to the page of the open Bible by his own blood, and the words adhered to his hands as they buried him: "I am the Resurrection and the Life, he that believeth in me, though dead yet shall he live."

As a Human Reconstructor.

Next consider the Holy Ghost as a human reconstructor. We must be made over again. Christ and Nicodemus talked about it. Theologians call it Regeneration. I do not care what you call it, but we have to be reconstructed by the Holy Ghost. We become new creatures, hating what we once loved, and loving what we once hated. If sin were a luxury, it must become new creatures, hating what we associations, we must prefer good associations. In most cases it is such a complete change that the world notices the difference, and begins to ask, "What has come over that man?" Whom has he been with? What has so affected him? What has ransacked his entire nature? What has turned him square about? Take two pictures of Paul: one on the road to Damascus to kill the disciples of Christ; the other on the road to Ostia to die for Christ. Come nearer home, and look at the man who found his chief delight in a low class of club-rooms, hiccoughing around the card-table, and then stumbling down the front steps after midnight and staggering homeward; and that same man, one week afterward, with his family on the way to a prayer-meeting. What has done it? It must be something tremendous. It must be God. It must be the Holy Ghost.

The Holy Ghost comfort, I think, generally comes in the shape of a soliloquy. You find yourself saying to yourself, "Well, I ought not to go on this way about my mother's death. She had suffered enough. She had borne other people's burdens long enough. I am glad that father and mother are together in heaven, and they will be waiting to greet us, and it will be only a little while, anyhow, and God makes no mistakes;" or you soliloquize, saying, "It is hard to lose my property. I am sure I worked hard enough for it. But God will take care of us, and as to the children, the money might have spoiled them, and we find that those who have turned out best, and it will all be well if this upsetting of our worldly resources leads us to lay up treasures in heaven." Or you soliloquize, saying, "It was hard to give up that boy when the Lord took him. I expected great things of him, and, oh, how we miss him out of the house, and there are so many things I come across that make one think of him, and he was such a splendid fellow; but then what an escape he has made from the temptations and sorrows which come to all who grow up, and it is a grand thing to have him safe from all possible harm, and there are all those Bible promises for parents who have lost children, and we shall feel a drawing heavenward that we could not have otherwise experienced." And after you have said that you get that relief which comes from an outburst of tears. I do not say to you, as some say, do not cry. God pity people in trouble who have the parched eye-ball, and the dry eye-lid, and can not shed a tear. That makes maniacs. To God's people tears are the dew of the night dashed with sunrise. I am so glad you can weep. But you think these things you say to yourself are only soliloquies. No, no. They are the Comforter, who is the Holy Ghost.

The Light of Heaven.

In 1857 the electric telegraph bore strange messages. One of them read, "My dear parents will rejoice to hear that I have found peace with God." Another read: "Dear mother, the work continues, and I, too, have been converted." Another read: "At last, faith and peace." In Vermont a religious meeting was singing the hymn, "Waiting and Watching for Me." The song rolled out on the night air, and a man halted and said, "I wonder if there will be any one waiting and watching for me?" It started him heavenward. What was it? The Holy Ghost. In that 1857, Jaynes' hall, Philadelphia, and Fulton street prayer-meeting, New York, telegraphed each other the number of souls saved, and the rising of the devotional tides. Noon-day prayer-meetings were held in all the cities. Ships came into harbor, captain and all the sailors saved on that voyage. Police and fire departments met in their rooms for divine worship. At Albany, the legislature of the state of New York assembled in the rooms of the Court of Appeals for religious services. Congressional union prayer-meeting was opened at Washington. From whence came the power? From the Holy Ghost. That power shook New York. That power shook America. That power shook the Atlantic ocean. That power shook the earth. That power could take this entire audience into the peace of the Gospel quicker than you could lift your eyes heavenward. Come, Holy Ghost! Come, Holy Ghost! Hail come! He is here! I feel him in my heart. There are thousands who feel him in their hearts, convicting some, saving some, sanctifying some.

The difference in evangelical usefulness is not so much a difference in brain, in scholarship, or elocutionary gifts, as in Holy Ghost power. You will not have much surprise at the extraordinary career of Charles G. Finney as a soul winner, if you know that soon after his conversion he had this experience of the Paraclete. He says:

"As I turned, and was about to take a seat by the fire, I received a baptism of the Holy Ghost. Without any expectation of it; without ever having the thought in my mind that there was any such a thing for me; without any recollection that I had ever heard the thing mentioned by any person in the world, the Holy Ghost descended upon me in a manner that seemed to go through me, body and soul. Indeed, it seemed to come in waves and waves of liquid love, for I could not express it in any other way. It seemed like the very breath of God. I can recollect distinctly that it seemed to fan me like immense wings. No words can express the wonderful love that was shed abroad in my heart. I wept aloud with joy and love. These waves came over me, and over me, and over me, one after the other, until I recall I cried out, 'I shall die if these waves continue to pass over me.' I said, 'Lord, I can not bear any more.'"

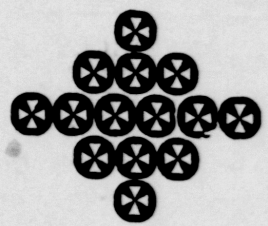

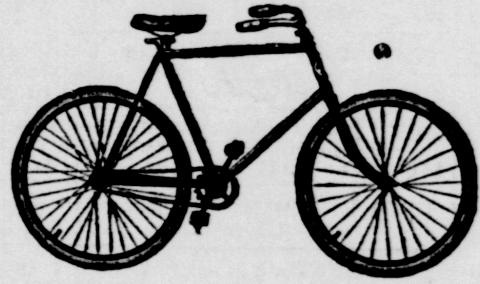

Now, my hearers, let five hundred of us, whether clerical or lay workers, get such a divine visitation as that, and we could take this world for God before the clock of the next century strikes one.

Instances of Power.

How many marked instances of Holy Ghost power! When a black trumpeter took his place in Whitefield's audience proposing to blow the trumpet at a certain point in the service, and put everything into derision, somehow he could not get the trumpet to his lips and at the close of the meeting he sought out the preacher and asked for his prayers. It was the Holy Ghost. What was the matter with Hedley Vicars, the memorable soldier, when he sat with his Bible before him in a tent, and his deriding comrades came in and jeered, saying: "Turned Methodist, eh?" And another said, "You hypocrite! Bad as you were I never thought you would come to this, old fellow." And then he became the soldier evangelist, and when a soldier in another regiment hundreds of miles away telegraphed his spiritual anxieties to Hedley Vicars, saying, "What shall I do?" Vicars telegraphed as thrilling a message as ever went over the wires, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." What power was being felt? It was the Holy Ghost. And what more appropriate? for the Holy Ghost is a "tongue of fire," and the electricity that flies along the wires is a tongue of fire. And that reminds me of what I might do now. From the place where I stand on this platform there are invisible wires or lines of influence stretching to every heart in all the seats on the main floor, and up into the boxes and galleries, and there are other innumerable wires or lines of influence reaching out from this place into the vast beyond, and across continents, and under the seas, for in my recent journey around the world I did not find a country where I had not been preaching this Gospel for many years through the printing press. So, as a telegraph operator sits or stands at a given point, and sends messages in all directions, and you only hear the click, click, click of the electric apparatus, but the telegrams, go on their errand, God help me now to touch the right key, and send the right message along the right wires to the right places! Who shall I first call up? To whom shall I send the message? I guess I will send the first to all the tired, wherever they are, for there are so many tired souls. Here goes the Christly message, "Come unto me all ye who are weary and I will give you rest."

Receiving the Spirit of Truth.

Who next shall I call up. I guess the next message will be to the fatherless and widows, and here goes God's message, "Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive, and let thy widows trust in me." Who next shall I call up? I guess my next message will be to those who have buried members of their own families, and here it goes, "The trumpet shall sound and the dead shall rise." Who next shall I call up? I guess the next message will be to those who think themselves too bad to be saved. Here it goes, "Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thoughts and let him return unto the Lord who will have mercy and unto our God who will abundantly pardon." Who next shall I call up? I guess it will be those who may think I have not yet touched their case. Here it goes, "Whosoever, whosoever, whosoever will, let him come." And now may God turn on all the electric power into this gospel battery for the last tremendous message, so that it may thrill through this assemblage, and through all the earth. Just six words will compose the message, and I touch the key of this gospel battery just six times and the message has gone! Away! Away it flies! And the message is, "Have ye received the Holy Ghost?" That is, do you feel his power? Has he enabled you to sorrow over a wasted life, and take full pardon from the crucified Christ, and turned your face toward the wide open gates of a welcoming heaven? We appeal to thee, oh, Holy Ghost, who didst turn the Philippian jailer, and Saul of Tarsus, and Lydia of Thyatira, and helped John Bunyan out of darkness when, as he describes it, "Down fell I as a bird shot from the top of the tree, into fearful despair, but was relieved by the comfortable words, 'The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin,' and helped John Newton when standing at the helm of a ship in the midnight hurricane, and mightier than the waves that swept the decks came over him the memory of his blasphemous and heinous life, and he cried out, 'My mother's God have mercy on me!' and helped one nearer home, even me. De Witt Talmage, at about 18 years of age, that Sunday night in the lovely village of Blawenburgh, N. J., when I could not sleep because the questions of eternal destiny seized hold of me, and has helped me ever since to use as most expressive of my own feeling: Amazing grace! how sweet the sound, That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found. Was blind, but now I see. Through many dangers, toils and snares, I have already come; 'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home."

REPUBLICAN SUPREMACY.

The ambition for place on the republican tickets wherever nominated during the past year, has been very noticeable, as is always the case, where party success is assured. That Janesville is not an exception to the rule is very natural. It is a satisfaction to know that the aspirants who have been disappointed are not 'sore heads,' and that the ticket will receive hearty support.

The tide of republican sentiment that swept over the country last fall, was very significant. It was intended as the warning note to the democratic party in 1896, and the enthusiasm that entered into the last campaign has been steadily increasing in volume. A party that is totally unfit to manage state and national affairs, should not be trusted with municipal government. It is not a question of good men in the democratic party, but it is a question of principle.

Every republican owes it to his party and himself, to be loyal this year. If this policy is adopted, Janesville will be a republican city for years to come. The candidate presented possessed the strength to command the nominations at a convention, created by the party. Every man on the ticket has a right to expect the united support of the party.

The talk of A. P. Alsm is without foundation and there is no occasion for a division of party sentiment along that line. If that issue is ever forced upon the city, it will be an independent issue, in which party lines will be ignored.

The Gazette believes in loyalty to the republican party by every man who professes to be a republican. It insures good government and cultivates a principle that contributes to the stability of character and inspires confidence. Every church has connected with it a class of people that are of great value to it, because of devoted loyalty.

The democratic party has within its ranks a large element who "vote the ticket straight," regardless of who the candidates are: men who would vote for a democratic wooden Indian in preference to the best man on earth of any other political faith.

The republican party has some men of the same class. Mr. Childs, the nominee for mayor, is one of them. For thirty-two years he has been a constant and faithful supporter of the party. His friends have always known where to find him, and his political enemies recognize that he is a lively competitor.

No one questions his right to aspire to the office of mayor, or his ability to acceptably fill the office. He will be elected, as will the entire city ticket because republican supremacy is in the air, and loyalty to the party is prominent and emphatic.

Soon Becomes Known.

It does not take one's friends long to find out where a person is located. It is but four days since Frank Brown, formerly head salesman at the Golden Eagle, went to M. Goodman's, 15 W. Milwaukee street, and yesterday he had a very busy day. Frank is quite popular.

A Warm Reception

Is made bearable by our light weight overcoats. We have a nice spring overcoat for $8.50; a better one for $10; a fine one for $12, and something elegant for $13.50. You can't buy so much comfort any other way for so little money.

Janesville Full of Wheels.

Never in the history of the town have there been so many poor bicycles offered for sale; wheels that have no reputation and can furnish no guarantee, and that cost but half as much as some other wheels to make, are being offered at fabulous prices, and no doubt some of them will be sold; but the buyers will forever regret it;

no wheel on the market can anywhere near equal the Columbia or their make. A Columbia wheel at $100 is as cheap as some of those others at $25. LOWELL HARDWARE CO.

A DAY ON JANESVILLE STREETS

HARRY ROBINSON, one of the most popular young men in the city, is enjoying an excellent trade at J. D. Holmes', tailoring and furnishing goods establishment. Harry's friends, and they are many, are all glad to see him advancing in the mercantile world as he is one of the best salesmen who ever used a tape measure.

The suits we make to order for $15 and pants for $4, are equal in every respect as the high-priced tailors at $20 and $7 for same patterns and grade of cloth. We don't try to get as much profit, satisfied with 10 per cent. T. J. Ziegler.

The largest invoice of perfumes ever in this market was received by Prentice & Evenson today, and it is all Hudnut's, that very popular perfume, equal to any $1.50 an ounce imported perfume on the market, and only 50 cents an ounce.

We make a specialty of perfumes, and our choice is Hudnut's. It is just as lasting and sweet as any perfume you pay $1.50 an ounce for, and don't cost you but 50 cents an ounce. Prentice & Evenson.

The list Grubb Brothers published yesterday shows that they keep the best there is; no store in town can show such an assortment, especially in their candy department, which is clean.

Yes, we do first class plumbing, gas and steam fitting and keep a full line of plumbers, gas and steam fitters supplies, also bath tubs, closets, hot water heaters, etc. Green & Allen.

BRING in your bottle and let us fill it with some odor of Hudnut's perfume, only 50 cents an ounce, equal to any $1.50 imported perfume on the market. Prentice & Evenson.

THE University of Wisconsin Glee, banjo and mandolin club will entertain tomorrow night the Myers' Grand. Seat sale opens this evening 7:30.

THE cheapest kinds of boys cotton suits are worth about 75 cents. If we dealt in any such stuff we would sell for that. T. J. Ziegler.

THE crowd will be at B. R. Bailey & Co's. tomorrow again. Please notice their large advertisement to see what they will do.

EVERY morning we get a lot of vegetables of all kinds, lettuce, radishes, onions, everything the market affords Dunn Bros.

AN ounce of perfume is a small thing, but some people try to get a $1 more for it than we do. Prentice & Evenson.

To the Rider.

Ever since the manufacture of bicycles began in America, there has been a continual demand for a strictly high grade machine at prices not to exceed two-thirds of that asked by the high grade makers already in the field. The Waverley fills the bill—$75 and $85. A. H. SHELTON & Co.

CURES OTHERS

Mrs. HARRY TAPPAN, of Reynolds, Neb., writes: "For about two years I was a constant sufferer from diseases peculiar to my sex. I had to be carried from my bed, had horrible dreams, sinking sensations, was very nervous and had little or no appetite. In short, my whole body was racked with pain. I had frequent attacks of hysteria, and was completely discouraged for I found no medicine did me any good. At last I determined to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I had taken two bottles before I felt so much better! I took eleven bottles. Today, I am well. I have never felt the least trace of my old complaint in the last six years. We use the 'Golden Medical Discovery' whenever we need a blood-purifier. With its use, eruptions of all kinds vanish and the skin is rendered clear and soft, almost as an infant's." Sold everywhere.

A WOMAN'S NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Passenger Train Was Stopped So Close That the Pilot Brushed Against Her Dress At the Jackson Street Crossing—Other Happenings of Interest.

A watchful engineer and a quick application of the air brakes were all that kept the Chicago & Northwestern accommodation from killing a woman at the Jackson street crossing. The train was pulling in from Watertown when the woman attempted to cross the track. The gates were down at the time, but that made no difference, and she dodged under. The train just missed her, the pilot brushing against her skirts.

FIVE POINTS PARTY STOPPED BY POLICE

JOLLY TIME CAME TO A SUD- DEN END.

Free For-All Started In Which the Whitelight Club Took a Prominent Part—Varnish Sellers Get Into Jail—Charles Jones of Porter Was Held for Trial.

A small but select company gathered at the home of a Fifth ward lady last night to have a real nice time.

They had it.

It was not the intention at first to invite the police to attend, but after a member of the White Light Club had stood on the head of one lady and used another for a backstop when her best beau threw a brick at him, they decided that the invitation list was not complete, and that Chief Acheson and Officer Hogan might feel slighted.

A messenger was sent down town in a hurry with the invitation, and in the meantime things kept getting worse. The past president of the White Light club hit the captain of the Foxhall debating team with a loaf of bread and one of the Foxhalls retaliated by pushing his fist into the eye of another Whitelight and planting his foot just above the waistband of his trousers.

Things were going hard with the furniture and the noise was beginning to resemble a rumour in Ringling's menagerie when the police came. Chief Acheson rapped on the door with his cane and then the gang were glad they broke the windows—they were easier to get out of.

In less than no time the room was empty and in the middle of the wreck sat the lady of the house, drunk but defiant. She was carted off to jail and in the meantime every White Light club man who is carrying a black eye or other evidence of a good time, is looked upon with suspicion.

Cars Put In the Shops.

Because they bought Clinton coffin varnish instead of drinking the kind they were selling at that town, Pat and John Carr are doing time in the county jail. They didn't like Clinton varnish and evidently Clinton didn't like theirs. The two Carrs were selling a patent piano polish of pleasant perfume, but after the manner of all cars that are too heavily loaded they finally broke down and got side tracked.

Then they were switched up to the jail, and it will be several days yet before they can touch bumpers in friendliness before the bar again. Marshal Shimeal threw the switch under them, and Turnkey North is the sealer who now has their numbers on his book.

The examination of Charles Jones, of Porter, was held in the municipal court this morning, the evidence being considered sufficient to hold him for trial on April 3. In default of $500 bail he will board at the Appleby House until that time. Miss Estu Norton, of the same town is the complaining witness.

REVIVAL MEETINGS END TONIGHT.

Session Will Close With Short Talks By the Pastors.

An interesting meeting was the second of the course at the All Souls church last evening. Rev. A. W. Gould of Chicago, presided at the meeting and Rev. W. S. Simons of Madison, was the first speaker. "The Only Consistent Faith" was his subject and his argument was along the line that while all churches believe in an all wise, all-powerful and all-loving God, the liberal church was the only ones whose teachings were consistent with the belief.

Rev. N. E. Southworth of Ware, Mass., followed Rev. Mr. Gould, and spoke of "The Common Objection to Liberal Faith." His objection was that if everyone is left to think for himself they will disagree. While this was true, yet there are some things in which all agree. No man was as good as he ought to be and it was the great work of the church to make man better. Freedom, sincerity and reverence are the three principles that the liberal church insists upon in its members. Sincerity should be seasoned with reverence, for sincerity uncontrolled leads to bigotry and fanaticism.

Rev. C. T. Elliott was called upon and said he had been brought up in the Unitarian church, and perhaps because of this was not so enthusiastic or radical as his fellow workers who had come out from the other churches. To go was always feared, and could not be controlled. He said he hoped that the fine thoughts advanced by the gentlemen who had spoken would be adopted by the listeners and put into practical operation.

The meeting tonight will be the last one of the series and at this meeting Mrs. Hattie Torrens will sing and Revs. Gould and Southworth will deliver short addresses.

CONCORDIA SOCIETY CELEBRATE Their Twenty-Seventh Anniversary Was Marked Last Night.

Twenty seven years ago last evening, the Concordia society was formed in this city. It has steadily grown from that time until now it is known as one of Janesville's strongest societies, its members including a number of Janesville's most prominent business men. Last evening's entertainment was in the nature of a family gathering, and a few invited friends. The programme opened with a potpourri of German airs by Smith's orchestra of six pieces, assisted on the piano by Mrs. J. F. Sweeney.

G. C. Fritz acted as master of ceremonies and a song by the society was followed by a piano duet by the Misses Emma and Hattie Kueck which was well rendered. Another selection by Smith's orchestra was followed by the singing society. Miss Martha Poenichen then rendered a piano solo entitled "Silver Elfe" to the delight of all present. The dance followed until the small hours of the morning, when all retired to their rooms, having spent one of the most delightful evenings in the history of the society.

RUNAWAY WAS AN EXCITING ONE.

Charles Dixon's Team Narrowly Escapes A Hard Fall This Afternoon.

There was an exciting runaway on East Milwaukee street this afternoon which came near resulting in the death of a handsome pair of colts belonging to Charles Dixon, Milton Ave. Mr. Dixon was coming to the city and descending East Milwaukee street hill the team of colts took fright at an approaching street car. A quick turn on Wisconsin street threw Mr. Dixon out of the wagon, and the colts ran around the block, and turned into R. M. Bostwick's yard. They were stopped just as they came to the high stone wall which holds the earth from falling into Milwaukee street. Luckily, but little damage resulted, but had the team plunged over the stone wall they could not have escaped death.

BENEATH A BURDEN OF SORROW

Funeral of Miss Emma Bliss.

Surrounded by friends whose hearts bled with those of the sorrowing family, all that was mortal of Miss Emma Bliss was lowered into the grave at Oak Hill cemetery this afternoon. Seldom is so sad a funeral held, for it is not often that so pure a life is cut short just as the level plain of a happy future stretches away before the eyes of one whose whole disposition was to see and to make happiness of all things. Rev. Dr. Halsey, of Court Street Methodist church conducted the services which were held at the family home No. 2 Hickory street at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. The song service was rendered by Miss Minnie S. Conrad, assisted by Mrs. J. F. Sweeney. Flowers in abundance paid the silent touching tribute of contributions that spring from the heart, and among them was one—the gates ajar—from the employees of The Gazette Printing Company that spoke eloquently of the regard in which the business manager and his family are held by those whose daily contact acquaints them better than anybody else, with the character that calls forth the deepest sympathy when sorrow enters a happy home. The pall bearers were the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bliss, George H., Harry H. and Charles W. Bliss and P. L. Elder, whose bright anticipations of a happy May wedding day were turned to the deepest mourning with which man is afflicted. The attendance was very large and many family friends accompanied the remains to the cemetery that they might share, to the end of the closing chapter, the sorrow of the stricken ones.

THEY STOOD AT CUPID'S SHRINE

Stanton—Winslow.

When Merton L. Stanton and Miss Maude Winslow drove to Delavan last Sunday afternoon in company with Alfred Jerg and Miss Eva Winslow, people thought it was simply a pleasure excursion. It developed into more than that, however, for when that pretty little town was reached a minister was sought and Mr. Stanton and Miss Winslow speedily became Mr. and Mrs. Stanton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Collier of the Congregational church, Miss Eva Winslow the sister of the bride, and Mr. Jerg standing up with them.

Both young people are well known to Janesville people. The bride is the daughter of Alderman and Mrs. F. S. Winslow, while the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stanton and is employed as engineer in the Riverside Steam Laundry, owned by his brother Charles S. Stanton. Many friends will unite in wishing them joy and happiness and with them The Gazette joins in congratulations.

FOUND HIS LOST BOY IN THE MADHOUSE

WHY ALBERT DAVERKOSEN DID NOT COME HOME.

He Was Acting Queerly so the Officers Took Him in Hand and Under the Name of Henry Lansing, Which He Gave, He Was Examined and Sent to Mendota.

Harry Daverkosen's son, Albert, did not come home one night last week, and after searching the town high and low, Mr. Daverkosen found him in the state insane asylum at Mendota, where he had been sent under the assumed name of Henry Lansing.

On March 21, Sheriff Appleby took a stranger whom he found wandering around the city, and placed him in jail. The next day he discovered that the boy's mind was not balanced and secured a commission for his examination. Drs. Joe B. Whiting and E. H. Dudley examined Lansing at the jail, and while they found his mind greatly impaired they did not consider him really insane. They decided, however, that he was a fit subject for treatment in the state asylum, and therefore reported in favor of sending him to Mendota.

Immediately after the boy was sent to Mendota the police were notified of the disappearance of young Daverkosen, and the father became very anxious to know of his whereabouts, fearing that he might have fallen into the river and drowned. He set out quickly and frequently sat down in the streets, compelling teams to turn out to avoid running over him. Finally the father described the young man to Sheriff Appleby, and the description fitted Lansing so perfectly that the father went to Mendota where he found his lost boy. He secured his release and brought him home.

BLOOMER COSTUME.

By Another Year the Bifurcated Bicycle Suit Will Pass Unnoticed.

The number of converts to the cause of dress reform daily increases. Already bloomers and divided skirts have emerged from the cloud of contempt and ridicule which overshadowed them when they first offered themselves seriously to public notice on the invention of the woman's bicycle. These are progressive days, and the sight of a woman in bifurcated garments now attracts but a moderate amount of notice. In another year or so this fashion will have been so completely accepted as to arouse no comment, even in thought.

Cycle shows have proved that the manufacturers believe the new dress will be universally used, for nearly every maker is building diamond frame wheels for women. Cycle makers generally have wise heads, and if they did not see a future for this style of machine they would not spend money in trying to introduce it to the public.

But this is only one of the bits of evidence. Society, especially in the east, has taken up cycling and has also in many cases declared itself in favor of "rational" dress by publicly appearing in it. As Society, with a large S, influences to a remarkable degree the far larger society, with a small s—is it a proof of the superiority of mind over matter?—the ultimate result is certain, not because of the sensibleness of the attire, but because it has been worn by fashionable women.

BLOOMER SUIT.

The old stock objection of immodesty was never a well founded one, so far as bloomers and divided skirts are concerned, and when the modern fashionable bathing suit is considered the accusation of impropriety leveled against bicycle costumes, like the one shown in the sketch, is turned into a satire.

As far as convenience and safety go, there is no question in respect to the desirability of trousers of some sort for riding. The number of accidents, more or less serious, that have occurred through the skirt catching on the pedal or saddle or becoming entangled in the gearing is legion, while the necessity of having it heavily lined and weighted, in order to keep it in place while the wheel is in motion, renders it clumsy and uncomfortable. Whether the diamond frame bicycle is adopted by women or not, the plain facts on the trousers question are the same.

VARIOUS NOTES.

Pajamas Grow In Favor—Fancy Hoods and Embroidered Linen.

Pajamas are beginning to be worn by women in place of the ordinary flowing nightgown. They are made in soft wools, in washing silk and in a mixture of wool and silk. There is a blouse bodice with the continuations, an incased ribbon drawing the combination round the waist. The sleeves are of the shirt genre, full to the wrist, where they are finished off with a frill. Frills also confine the garment round the ankles. A turndown collar is the finish. These garments are no doubt very warm and comfortable, but too suggestive of a clown's costume to be pleasing to the aesthetic eye. Women have given the "rational" dress a civil daylight reception, but if it is going to pursue them even to their couch where there is any opportunity left for them to enjoy the satisfaction of wearing skirts?

BATISTE COLLARS.

Little girls are now wearing hoods. These can be made in any material wished, as warmth can be provided for by an inner lining of flannel or a thin sheet of wadding, an overlying being of some soft silk. Some very pretty ones are trimmed with fur. Any small pieces can be used with a little management. The necessity of protecting the ears and neck in severe weather is now admitted, and children are warmly dressed in close fitting capes and caps or hoods, not in the absurd little hats and bonnets used a year ago.

Linen handkerchiefs, embroidered or lace trimmed, are again carried with evening gowns in place of the chiffon ones recently favored. Linen is indeed fashionable for various uses, and the embroidering of it for different purposes is a popular sort of fancy work in Paris. Doilies and napkins are embroidered with colored wash silks and cottons, golden yellow being the favorite tint. It is said that washing these embroidered linens in salt water prevents the colors from fading.

Large collars of linen or batiste are again in fashion. They are usually becoming and will make a pretty addition to house and warm weather gowns. A sketch is given of several different styles.

Upon receiving his ballot, voter must retire, alone, to a booth or compartment, and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform a voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter, to designate the candidates he wishes to vote for, must make a cross (X) in the square at the right of the name of each of such candidates. * * * * * If he wishes to vote for a person for either of the offices designated, whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name of such person in the blank space under the printed names of the candidates for the office, and make a cross (X) in the square to the right of it. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who may issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum, to assist the voter in making his ballot, can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it is marked by the voter. After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. The voter should pass out of the booth, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, and pass out of the voting place. A voter, who declares to the presiding officer, that he is unable to read, or by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have the assistance of one or two election officers in marking same, to be chosen by the voter. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The names of the candidates for the different offices and the principles represented in the nomination of each candidate are as below set forth.
